

BLSA Checklist derived from Curriculum for a CCT in Anaesthetics

The information below has been taken from the WPBA blueprint from the Curriculum for a CCT in Anaesthetics (August 2010), Edition 2, Version 1.7.

Trainees should successfully complete a minimum of one of each assessment type identified below for each unit of training. . Please note that DOPs are largely not mandatory, but can still be assessed particularly for specialist procedures e.g. cardiac & paediatrics.

Trainee Name: _____

HIGHER level units of training to be completed	A-CEX	ALMAT	CBD	DOPs	Completion date	20 sessions completed
						Y	N
Essential Units
Anaesthesia for neurosurgery, neuroradiology and neuro critical care
Cardiothoracic anaesthesia and cardiothoracic critical care
General duties: * (minimum of EIGHT general units to be completed over an indicative period of one year)
Airway management **
Day surgery
Head, neck, maxillofacial and dental
General, urological and gynaecological surgery
Mngmnt of respiratory and cardiac arrest **
Non-theatre
Obstetrics
Orthopaedic
Perioperative medicine
Regional
Sedation
Transfer medicine
Trauma and stabilisation
Vascular
Intensive care medicine	This has been set by the Faculty of Intensive Care Medicine. See Annex F in the Curriculum for CCT in Anaesthetics (August 2010)
Paediatric
Optional Units
Pain medicine
Paediatric intensive care medicine
Ophthalmic
Plastics/Burns
Anaesthesia in developing countries
Conscious sedation in dentistry
Military anaesthesia
Remote and rural

* Assessment requirements for General Duties:

- Option of A-CEX or ALMAT for each unit blueprinted with both types of assessment
- Minimum of 3 CBD

** Mandatory for all trainees

		Completion date
Mandatory Simulation Course:	Patient Safety in Anaesthesia Course - ST5
	Difficult Airway Management, Information & Techniques (DAMIT) Course – ST6	